

healthcare without boundaries

Dr. Shashidhar Acharya

Dr. Shashidhar Acharya practices internal medicine in Orange, California. Like many physicians, Dr. Acharya was facing tremendous challenges attempting to sustain and grow his business in the labor and paper intensive environment of a traditional practice. Then Dr. Acharya deployed Alteer Office, from Alteer Corporation. Built on 100% Microsoft technology, Alteer Office is an enterprise wide workflow solution that integrates scheduling, billing, paperless medical records, pharmacy refills, reporting, internal-external messaging and interactive Web sites. The seamless integration of fax, scanning, telephony and the Internet eliminates excess paper flow and enhances communication between patients, care partners and staff. Today, Dr. Acharya is saving $45,000 annually and has improved patient care and quality of life in his office.
